The main season for Scotland is April to September. In April and May its glorious scenery is set off by colorful displays of wildflowers in the bluebell woods and the grass and wildflower-covered dunes. June brings a pink haze of rhododendron blossoms to the Highland glens. For the history buff, few cities compare with Edinburgh and Glasgow; Don't miss the Aberdeen Angus beef or smoked salmon from Dumfries & Galloway or the peerless malt whiskies of the Isle of Islay or Oban. The best season for Ireland is from May to July. Spring (February to April) and autumn (August to October) make good alternatives. A small country with a big reputation, helped along by a timeless, age-caressed landscape and a fascinating, friendly people, whose lyrical nature is expressed in the warmth of their welcome.
