

UZBEKISTAN

Pearl of the silk route

Day 01 : Arrival Tashkent

Day 02 : Tashkent City Tour-evening flight to Urgench-Khiva

Day 03 : Khiva

Day 04 : Khiva-Bukhara

Day 05 : Bukhara

Day 06 : Bukhara

Day 07 : Bukhara-Shakhrisabs-Samarkand

Day 08 : Samarkand

Day 09 : Samarkand-Tashkent

Day 10 : Departure

Uzbekistan is best visited from April to June and from late August to November. Bukhara - One of the holiest places of Islam, the venerable and captivating city of Bukhara was also one of the key stops along the Silk Route. Khiva - a well-preserved and fascinating city, its azure-glazed tiles glinting in the midday sun. Samarkand - Few names invoke such romance as that of Samarkand, for countless centuries a glorious magnet for travelers, scholars, tyrants and poets. Evidence of the city's extraordinary 2,500 year history is everywhere. The great city of Tashkent, right in the heart of Asia, is the largest metropolis in the region, the nation's capital and home to some excellent museums, operas and fine dining.

